

Nomination Form
2023 Dr. Tony Ryan Book Award
For best book published in 2023 on Thoroughbred racing

Nomination deadline: December 31, 2023

To Be Awarded: November 2024

Winning Author Award: $10,000 and a trophy

The Dr. Tony Ryan Book Award, presented annually by Castleton Lyons, is awarded to the author of the best book on any aspect of Thoroughbred racing for work published in 2023. The work, which must have Thoroughbred racing as its main theme, can fall into any category: fiction, nonfiction, children's, handicapping, breeding, training, photography, etc. Periodicals or publications that contain advertising will not be considered. A panel of judges will take into consideration design, layout, and artwork when relevant. The author of the winning book will receive $10,000 and a trophy. Other finalists will receive $1,000 each and a trophy.

A book must be officially released in calendar year 2023 in order to be eligible. The year of publication on the copyright page of a nominated book may be used to determine eligibility. Re-releases or updates of previously published books are not eligible. Decision of the judges is final.

Six (6) copies of each book must be submitted along with this signed nomination form.
